NEERIEMER V SUPERIOR COURT OF MARICOPA COUNTY EBOOKS 2019

Author: Arizona Court of Appeals

Realese Date: Expected @@expectedReleaseDate@@

The petitioner by this special action seeks to reverse a ruling by the respondent trial judge that where the original complaint in a medical malpractice action alleges negligence in the performance of a surgical operation, an amended complaint which alleges a battery by reason of a failure to obtain the "informed consent" of the plaintiff to the operation does not "relate back" to the time of filing of the original complaint so as to defeat application of the statute of limitations. Though the question is not without some difficulty, we have concluded that the challenged ruling runs counter to the prevailing concepts of modern procedure, and we deem extraordinary relief appropriate. We have heretofore issued our order vacating the ruling in question so as to accommodate an early trial date, and this opinion is in amplification of that order.
